

SUDDENLY Single

MONEY MATTERS

How can I find peace of mind about money?

How can I possibly understand all this?

Will a Financial Advisor treat me with respect?

Is there an Advisor who will understand me?

Where do I go to learn all this stuff?

How do I get out of debt and save?

How can I be taken seriously?

What if I make a mistake?

How do I create a plan?

NEW CIRCUMSTANCES BRING NEW QUESTIONS.

Suddenly you are Single, alone and totally responsible for all financial decisions. Maybe you have never done that before.
