Understanding the law and the justice system as it relates to domestic violence

The civil and criminal court system can often be overwhelming and difficult to maneuver especially if your life has been impacted by domestic violence. This workshop aims to present information to help clients and advocates navigate the justice system and help prepare clients to seek protection as safely as possible.

- Learn about laws and criminal application for stalking, physical violence, emotional abuse, financial abuse
- Learn about orders of protection vs restraining orders
- Learn about victims advocacy

Continuing education for this event will be provided by the Tennessee Licensed Professional Counselors Association (TLPCA). TLPCA has been approved by the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) as an Approved Continuing Education Provider (ACEP # 6376). Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. TLPCA is solely responsible for all aspects of the programs.
